Welcome to the 2024 Kitsap Fair and Stampede, we strive to bring together a community of adults and youth to learn, exhibit, and enjoy agriculture within the Kitsap community!

As you begin the process of entering our fair, we want to extend a warm welcome to all exhibitors. Your participation enriches our event and showcases the best of our region's agriculture and youth.

We would also like to express our appreciation for our Livestock Superintendents. Their invaluable knowledge, tireless effort, and commitment to excellence serve as the cornerstone of our fair's success. Throughout the event, they will be your go-to resource for all barn-related information, providing guidance, support, and expertise to ensure a smooth and enjoyable experience for all.

We wish you all the best as you showcase your talents and share your passion with fellow exhibitors and visitors alike.

Let's make this the best fair yet!

-Kharissa Hamilton (Assistant Livestock Director)

Open Class Livestock Rules

1. All exhibitors must comply with the livestock rules and regulations and open class livestock exhibitor's guide as printed and approved by the Livestock Director of the Kitsap Fair and Stampede Association. Please refer to the Livestock Rules and Regulations at www.kitsapfair.org.
  2. All open class livestock entries must be received by the Kitsap Fair Office on or before August 1st.
  3. All entry fee checks and/or money orders must be made payable to the Kitsap Fair and Stampede or KFSA.
    - a. Please mail to: Kitsap Fair & Stampede, PO Box 2510, Silverdale, WA 98383
    - b. Or drop off at 1300 NW Fairgrounds Rd, Bremerton, WA 98311, Monday through Friday
  4. Entry fees are per class, there are no fees for non-premium or herd type classes.
  5. 4-H and FFA exhibitors must pay open class entry fees when entering open class competitions.
  6. Entry fees are non-refundable.
  7. HAUL-IN TIMES: All livestock exhibits will be hauled in Tuesday of Fair Week during the following times only:
    - a. Large Animals: 10 am – 12pm and 1 pm – 9 pm.
      - i. Trailers will be staged inside the Boand arena to await the vet.
      - ii. Plan accordingly for wait times.
      - iii. Vet will not be present during designated lunch hour.
    - b. Small Animals: 12 pm – 9 pm
      - i. Vehicles hauling small animals will go left before the Boand Arena and drive up the hill to the Rabbit Barn.
      - ii. All animals will be unloaded and checked by vet before being moved into their barns.
  - iii. Please be prepared to wait and have water/cooling devices available for animals.
  - iv. Small animals include dogs, cats, poultry, rabbits, and covies.
  - c. All exhibits will comply with the health requirements and veterinary inspection requirements as set forth in the Livestock Rules and Regulations found at www.kitsapfair.org.
  - d. In all cases of livestock exhibits, the exhibits are to be in their assigned places in the livestock barns no later than 9:00 p.m., Tuesday of Fair week.
8. ALL ANIMALS MUST BE VET CHECKED BEFORE ENTERING ANY BARN.
- a. Decision of entrance into the fair is based solely on the discretion of the fair veterinarian, his/her decision will be FINAL.
9. Youth age divisions are based on their age on October 1st of the previous year. (i.e. a child's birthdate is 10/2 and they turn 11 they will still be in the 8-10 division)
- Premium Awards:
1. A breed class will only be filled if there are 3 or more exhibits of that breed in that department, otherwise exhibits will be entered in an "other breeds" class.
  2. Open Youth Showmanship and Market Type will be judged on the Danish system with premium points awarded. Premium points will be as follows:
    - a. Showmanship - Blue – 44, Red – 33, White – 11
    - b. Market Type - Blue – 44, Red – 33, White – 11

4. Youth showmanship and market type classes are awarded a champion and reserve all around buckle from the Kitsap Fair and Stampede Association.

5. Classes that are outlined in each department as non-Premium will not receive a premium payment for placement in that class.
6. Classes may be divided or combined at the discretion of the superintendent or show chair, to make a more interesting show.

Livestock Skillathon – CLASS 0001

1. A contest designed to test and showcase participants' knowledge and skills in various aspects of livestock management, including breed identification, health care, and production practices.
2. Open to all youth 18 and under.
3. Pre-Registration is required.
4. Teams must be made up of 3 youths within different age groups (i.e. 10, 15, 17-year-old exhibitors).
5. Study guides can be found at www.kitsapfair.org/livestock.
6. Champion, reserve champion, and third place awards will be given to the winning teams.

Livestock Judging – CLASS 0002

1. A class designed to test exhibitors' skill in judging production livestock animals.
2. Pre-registration is required.
3. Awards will be divided into age group lots.
4. Schedule will be announced at fair.

Educational Display - CLASS 0003

1. This is for an additional display contest will be provided.
2. This is a group/team/individual display contest.
3. Each exhibit will be given one 10'x10' horse stall to create an interactive educational display that should be engaging, informative, and visually appealing and effectively convey educational content to the public. This would be very similar to the topics used on an educational poster but on a much larger scale.
4. Every display must be related to agricultural education in some way.
5. Examples are: 4-H club promotion, National FFA leadership and contributions, step inside a cow, how to become a farrier, canning guidelines, etc.
6. All walls inside the stall plus the exterior entrance should be decorated to encourage the public to step inside.
7. A special award will be given to the winning display based on "people's choice" voting during the fair.

Round Robin:

1. Invitation only contest, for youth 18 years old and under.
2. Exhibitors who have received a champion or reserve champion award are eligible to compete.
3. A Round Robin Champion and Reserve Champion will be awarded to each age division.
4. The contest is divided between small animals and large animals.
5. Each contestant will demonstrate their ability to show each animal species in their class (Small or Large Animal).

Poultry Department Rules:

1. All exhibitors must comply with the livestock rules and regulations and open class livestock rules as printed and approved by the Livestock Director of the Kitsap Fair and Stampede Association.
2. Herdsmanship is required for all exhibitors. Barn duty will be determined by the superintendent and covered in the barn meeting before fair opening. Please review Herdsmanship requirements listed in the Livestock Rules and Regulations.
3. Entries will be accepted based on first come, first served.
4. Breed and Variety shall be listed in the description. Review the American Poultry Association (APA) standard for breeds and variety descriptions.
5. An entry fee of $5.00 will be charged for each type class or eggs entered in this department.
6. All birds must be checked in, vet checked and caged by 9:00 pm Tuesday prior to Fair.
7. All birds are required to have leg bands for identification, must be noted on entry form.
8. See General Health Requirements in Livestock Rules.
  - a. Birds that are not in good condition or have obvious parasites will be turned away.
  - b. Birds must be washed and clean, eyes must be bright, and birds must be alert.
  - c. Body condition must be adequate, no missing/pecked or clipped feathers will be allowed.
  - d. No birds younger than 4 months of age will be allowed unless entered in the Kitsap County Junior Livestock Auction (KCJLA), see the auction rules for specific requirements and species allowed.
9. Provide your name and contact number to the Superintendent in case of emergency.
10. All exhibitors will be required to provide their own feed and maintain their own feed in the provided coop cups.
11. Prior to 9:00 am each day - exhibitors will be responsible for feeding and watering their birds, cleaning their own cages and walkways in front of their cages.
12. Exhibitors shall not remove any exhibit prior to dismissal time on the last day of Fair without prior approval from the Livestock Director and Poultry Superintendent.
13. Upon dismissal, exhibits shall be removed from cages, placed in transport carriers in the Poultry Barn courtyard, and Exhibitor is responsible for cleaning their cages and pens, no exceptions.

Sheep

Superintendent:
Joyce Harrell

Phone: 360-286-1254
Email: joyceharrell@mac.com

Sheep Department Rules:

1. All exhibitors must comply with the Livestock Rules and Regulations and Open Class Livestock Rules as printed and approved by the Livestock Director of the Kitsap Fair and Stampede Association.
2. Removal of any exhibit prior to dismissal time from display area will be seen as a final act and will result in immediate forfeiture of all premiums, points, and privileges by the Exhibitor. Further, Exhibitor may be suspended from future exhibiting at the Fair.
3. Herdsmanship is required for all exhibitors. Barn duty will be determined by the superintendent and covered in the barn meeting before fair opening. Please review Herdsmanship requirements listed in the Livestock Rules and Regulations.
4. An entry fee of $6.00 will be charged for each breed type class entered in this department.
5. All sheep must have scrapie tags or premise ID to comply with National Scrapie Eradication Program and WAC 16-89-022.
6. Age will be determined by teeth and registration papers (registration papers must be present at time of entry). Lambs shown by breeder do not need papers.
7. Registered animals will be shown in breed lots, all unregistered will be shown in "other breed" lot.
8. Exhibitors may enter up to two (2) animals in any one lot.
9. All sheep entered in flock, get or pair lots must also be entered in an individual lot. Get pairs and young flock must be owned by the exhibitor. Registration papers must be recorded in the name of the exhibitor and be presented on the entry day.
10. Where there is no competition, the judge, in his/her opinion, may award 2nd premium in place of 1st.
11. Any class with only one exhibitor will automatically go into "other breed" group.
12. No cross entry is allowed between Open, 4-H, or FFA showmanship and market classes.
13. Lads and Ladies Lead Rules:
  - a. The purpose of this activity is to promote the sheep industry by presenting an attractively modeled wool garment (at least 70%) with a well-groomed sheep in a manner to give spectators the opportunity to see wool in both its beautiful forms, on the hoof, and in the completed garment (not a costume).
  - b. Lads and Ladies Lead is a combined Open Class, 4-H and FFA event.
  - c. No fee required to registered exhibitors.
  - d. Non-registered contestants receive ribbon only.
  - e. Entry forms will be available on the information board next to Sheep Office in the Sheep barn and must be returned by 4:00 p.m. on event day.
  - f. Sheep must be ewe lambs, yearling ewes, or aged ewes and must be conditioned, fitted, and trained to show on a halter.
  - g. The sheep must have been shown in her appropriate class in the Open Sheep Show, 4-H Show, or FFA Show and may be shown only once in the Lads and Ladies Lead Class. Only the participant will handle the sheep (Exception: Minimum assistance may be provided for participants age 6 and under).
  - h. Entries shall include a description of the garment to be worn, the background of the contestant, and the breed of sheep. This description will be read aloud as written while the contestant and his/her animal promenade the ring.
  - i. Entrants will be judged on the garment and its appearance, the appearance of the sheep, and the coordination in handling between the two. Remember, you are promoting wool and the sheep industry to the public.
  - j. A name sign may be attached to the exhibit, no larger than 12 x 18 inches.
  - k. Fair Staff will do the judging. There will also be a People's Choice award. Vote for your favorite at the Horticulture Department in Presidents' Hall.
  - l. The Superintendent reserves the right to disqualify any entry deemed inappropriate for a family fair.

Wool

Superintendent:
Joyce Harrell

Phone: 360-286-1254
Email: joyceharrell@mac.com

Wool Department Rules:

1. All exhibitors must comply with the livestock guidelines and open class livestock rules as printed and approved by the Livestock Director of the Kitsap Fair and Stampede Association.
2. Removal of any exhibit prior to dismissal time from display area will be seen as a final act and will result in immediate forfeiture of all premiums, points, and privileges by the Exhibitor. Further, Exhibitor may be suspended from future exhibiting at the Fair.
3. An entry fee of $3.00 will be charged for each Fleece entered in this department.
4. Fleece must be from animal owned by consignor.
5. All entries must be from the current year or fall of the previous year's clip and represent not more than 12 months growth. Lamb fleeces must be noted on the entry form. (Lamb is seven months or less).
6. Limit of two entries per lot per class.
7. Fleeces should be tied with paper twine or not tied, as desired. Place in a large, clear unmarked plastic bag for transporting.
8. Commercial classes will be judged according to commercial value/yield in the commercial market. White crossbred fleeces may be entered in the commercial classes only and are not eligible for breed type.
9. Breed classes will be judged according to their respective breed standards. Where there is only one exhibitor, the fleece(s) will be entered in Lot 14 or 15 as appropriate. If there is more than one exhibitor for a breed not listed, a Lot will be created.
10. Natural colored fleeces will be entered according to grade. If entered incorrectly, the Superintendent will have the authority to place it in the correct class. All natural-colored entries will be judged as hand spinning fleeces.
11. Where there is no competition, or where there are fewer entries in a class than number of premiums offered, the judge may, at his/her discretion, award premium or premiums of such grade as the exhibit deserves. The decision of the judge will be final.
12. Entries must be in place, in the sheep barn, between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, the day before Fair. Entries will be released at 6:00 p.m. Sunday, or the same time that sheep are released.
